Are you creative, innovative, enthusiastic and motivated? The Leadership Team at The John Moore Primary School are seeking to appoint a dedicated and highly committed class teacher with the desire to help children to become the very best version of themselves, whilst encouraging them to fulfil their potential and succeed.

We are looking for a teacher who:

- is an outstanding classroom practitioner with an excellent understanding of the National Curriculum expectations who can bring learning to life
- has high expectations for achievement and behaviour for all
- is able to motivate and engage all children in their learning
- is an excellent team player who is able to contribute positively to the whole school community
- shows good communication skills
- can contribute to the strong ethos and values of our school
- is keen to develop their own skills and shows initiative to keep themselves well-informed of developments within education and learning

We can offer you:

- confident, happy children who are eager to learn
- an extremely popular primary school with an intake of 45 which we organise into parallel mixed-age classes
- a friendly, welcoming and positive team who work hard and are committed to ensuring that our children master the curriculum and develop essential life skills within their learning
- a collaborative approach to planning and teaching in phase teams
- a caring leadership team that supports its staff and collaboratively works to develop exceptional practice for all
- a supportive school community
- an aesthetically pleasing place of work in a modern school building with a well-resourced learning environment
- opportunities for professional development
